Branding Material

1 DESCRIPTION

The provision of SAWS and Government of Flanders (GoF) branded promotional material to be used at the DMISA conference on 25th & 26th October 2023 in Thohoyandou in Limpopo.

INTRODUCTION

The South African Weather Service (SAWS) was established as an Agency on 15 July 2001 under the then Ministry of Environmental Affairs and Tourism (now known as the Ministry of Environmental Affairs) in terms of the South African Weather Service Act No. 8 of 2001, as amended. It is listed as a Schedule 3A Public Entity in terms of the Public Finance Management Act (PFMA) and its mandate is to provide two distinct services, namely (1) public good services which are funded by Government, and (2) commercial services, where the user-pays principle applies.

The head office of the South African Weather Service is situated at: ABSA Building,
1263 Heuwel Road,
Centurion, 0157
Private Bag X097
Pretoria 0001

2 BACKGROUND

SAWS is the national provider of weather and climate related information. It has been mandated to assist the South African government to minimise the impact of weather related disasters. The organisation must further ensure public awareness in order for communities to take precautions in the event of severe weather conditions. The WeatherSMART vision is aimed at ensuring that the 63m million South Africans are weather resilient and use SAWS products and services.

The organisation often participates in exhibitions that require the SAWS to be present showcase the SAWS brand and the various business and career opportunities available in the organisation. The most optimal way in which South Africans are encouraged to use SAWS products and services and believe in the organisation's brand is through brand awareness. Brand awareness refers to the extent to which customers are able to recall or recognise a brand, what it stands for and what it provides to the consumer.

Brand awareness is obtained primarily through advertising and marketing. SAWS has tapped into various advertising and marketing tools to expand the SAWS brand such as publications, media, events and social media.
